

SURVEY RESULTS

✓ On Accoutrement:

- 52.88% stated that the metal paraphernalia causes inconvenience and hampers police operations;
- 44.86% are amenable in using embroidered paraphernalia; and
- 59.55% stated that lanyard causes discomfort & obstructs free movement.

✓ On Headgear:

- Male respondents (50.29%) stated that Pershing cap is heavy & bulky;
- 49.59% of the female respondents agreed that the headgear is heavy and bulky; and
- 55.13 % agreed for the redesign of the existing Stetson hat (for HPG personnel).

✓ On PNP Leather Pistol Belt :

- 51.31% of the respondents agreed that the PNP leather pistol belt is heavy, bulky and sags when inserted with firearms; and
- 54.29% are also amenable in changing the material of PNP pistol belt to a lighter weight material.

✓ On Chevron:

- Only 24.65% agreed for the change in the size of rank insignia for making it bigger for easy identification even at a distance.